

PROJECT GOAL REACHED—One hundred five flags will fly this July 4 and every flag flying day in the village of Ashville, as a result of a project conceived by Ginny Irwin and Addie Lockard. Brackets were installed by Ralph Gloyd's scout troop. Many merchants, individuals and civic organizations contributed, surpassing the goal of 40 flags for the immediate downtown section of the village. Scouts of Troop 744, Gloyd (center, dark cap), Mrs. Lockard and Mrs. Irwin, are shown placing a flag in its bracket.

Dean Denies Being Watergate Mastermind

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ousted White House counsel John W. Dean III told the Senate Watergate committee today he took no notes of some meetings with President Nixon because "some of the things that were being said in these meetings...were very incriminating to the President."

Answering a series of White House questions posed through Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii, Dean said he did not want documents recording his presidential meetings because the White House had a problem with information becoming public.

Pressed for his recollection of a key meeting with Nixon on Sept. 15, 1972, Dean said he could not repeat the exact words used by Nixon, but said his mind "certainly perceives the message being given."

Dean said conversations in the meetings included discussions of such matters as clemency for E. Howard Hunt and payoffs for convicted Watergate defendants, all mentioned earlier during his previous three days of testimony.

In response to White House questions about how Dean was able to remember what had happened several months or a year ago, Dean said he had kept a file of newspaper stories that often acted as a "trigger" to his memory.

Dean testified he has no knowledge that John D. Ehrlichman, Nixon's former top domestic aide, had prior knowledge of the Watergate break-in. Inouye was posing a series of questions prepared by J. Fred Buzhardt, special counsel to the White House.

The questions followed up on a complex White House memo read by Inouye Wednesday which accused Dean of being a man ready to sacrifice the President to save himself from jail, and which also abandoned any White House support for former attorney general and Nixon campaign chief John N. Mitchell.

Dean has steadily refused since presenting his six-hour case Monday to recant his story that Nixon and his chief aides, particularly Ehrlichman and H. R. Haldeman, were fully aware of the lengthy and elaborate cover-up. He insisted he was always the messenger and never the master of a conspiracy to conceal the truth.

The ousted White House counsel replied to the administration counterattack with a new offensive of his own before the Senate Watergate committee Wednesday.

He produced what he said was the official White House black list of the President's enemies in Congress and in politics, business, labor, journalism, the universities and the theater.

And Dean supplied the committee with copies of White House memos that indicated preparations were being made two years ago to "use the available federal machinery to screw our political enemies."

Meanwhile, in a surprise move, Frederick C. LaRue, a former Nixon campaign aide and White House consultant, was permitted to plead guilty in U.S. District Court to a single conspiracy charge in exchange for his promise to testify against others involved in the Watergate scandal. In return, prosecutors had agreed not to press any other charges against him.

Dean is to return to the Senate witness stand for a fourth day today to undergo a cross-examination, based on a series of questions written by White House special counsel J. Fred Buzhardt.

In San Clemente, Calif., a White House spokesman again refused to predict the President might comment on Dean's testimony. Deputy Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren said Nixon did not want to respond "in a fragmentary way" and that comments "while the hearings are in progress would not be beneficial to the committee."

The White House questions will be put to Dean by Democratic Sen. Daniel K. Inouye of Hawaii.

It was learned that when that process is completed, Inouye plans to ask Dean another series of questions—on Dean's knowledge of the complicated financial transactions that enabled the President to buy his ocean-side estate at San Clemente, Calif.

It was understood Dean has new information about the deal, and was willing to talk about it with the committee.

Wednesday, the White House provided the first serious challenge to Dean's position.

In a statement read to Dean by Inouye, Buzhardt asserted that Dean was the prime mover in the cover-up, along with former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, whom Buzhardt called Dean's patron, and Jeb Stuart Magruder, the former deputy of the Committee for the Re-election of the President.

House Lowers Legal Age

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio House approved a bill lowering the age of majority from 21 to 18 Wednesday, but removed a provision permitting youths to legally drink alcoholic beverages.

The age of majority bill now goes back to the Senate for concurrence in House amendments. Drinking was not in the bill when it came from the Senate last March, but was added in the House Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Michael G. Oxley, R-82 Findlay, offered the amendment to remove drinking. It passed, after long debate, 60-35.

The bill was approved 84-11. The bill does not change the present law allowing youths to buy and drink low-powered 3.2 per cent beer.

House Minority Leader Charles F. Kurfess, R-83 Perrysburg, did win approval of two amendments.

One would retain guardianships for 18-21-year-olds who are left estates of over $5,000. The other would allow a court to require divorced parents to continue educational support to an 18-21-year-old.

Berrigan Is Cleared Of Charges

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A federal appeals court has cleared the Rev. Philip Berrigan of three of four convictions of smuggling letters out of a federal prison to plan antiwar activities.

The 3rd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals also overturned on Wednesday all three similar convictions against Sister Elizabeth McAlister, a nun who recently married Berrigan.

Berrigan, 49, was paroled from federal prison last year. He had been serving a six-year term for destroying draft records in Catonsville, Md., in 1968. The letter-smuggling convictions were being served concurrently.

Sister Elizabeth had been free on bail. Reversal of the convictions ends the case against her.

Berrigan, Sister Elizabeth and five others had been accused of conspiring to kidnap presidential aide Henry A. Kissinger, blow up heating tunnels in Washington, D.C., and vandalize draft offices around the country to force an end to U.S. involvement in Indochina.

The jury deadlocked on the conspiracy charges against the seven defendants, but Berrigan and Sister Elizabeth were found guilty of smuggling Berrigan letters out of the federal penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., in 1970 to further the alleged antiwar conspiracy.

Ohio Property Value Rises $1.5 Billion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The value of all personal, real estate and public utility property in Ohio rose to more than $43.3 billion in 1972, state Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson reported today.

Ferguson said that's about $1.5 billion more than the 1971 property valuations filed by county auditors.

Schlesinger OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate confirmed President Nixon's nomination of James R. Schlesinger as secretary of Defense today.

Revamped Ohio Budget Up For Vote

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Both houses of the General Assembly vote today on a compromise version of Democratic Gov. John Gilligan's $9.9 billion budget bill with approval predicted.

Numerous changes were made in the massive document which will finance state operations starting July 1, but there was very little change in the amount of spending originally proposed by the administration.

It was more a matter of priorities being arranged.

Basically, Senate Republicans were successful in rearranging revenue estimates and adding $50 million in tax relief and $43 million in increased educational spending. Democrats won back a big chunk of cuts the GOP Senate made in the administration's initial budget requests.

Both sides could claim lesser victories on other issues.

An $81 million appropriation for aid to parochial schools was retained in the measure despite a U.S. Supreme Court decision Monday that seemed to invalidate a tax credit plan the legislature devised to allocate the funds.

The committee cut from $85 million to $50 million the amount allocated for tax relief. Instead of a 10 per cent cut in state income bills of working couples filing joint returns—across the board—the committee determined that the biggest reductions would go to couples in the lowest income brackets.

The bill now provides that couples with combined annual income of $10,000 or less will get a 20 per cent reduction.

Those who earn from $10,000 to $20,000 would get a reduction of 12 per cent, while couples making $20,000 or more would get a tax break of 5 per cent. Total cost of the income tax relief is estimated at $44 million.

The committee also voted to expand the homestead exemption currently provided in the property tax law for homeowners 65 or older. Instead of limiting the exemption to couples with $8,000 or less annual income, the income ceiling would be increased to $10,000. That part of the tax relief would cost $6 million.

The state's new Environmental Protection Agency, which received some of the sharpest budget cuts in the Senate, won back a substantial portion of its original allocation.

The committee put back $6 million of the $16 million senators had cut, giving the agency $21 million for the 1973-1975 biennium. That is more than double the agency's present allocation.

The committee restored the following amounts of funds cut by the Senate:

Natural Resources Department, $2 million (Senate cut, $4 million); Youth Commission, $4 million ($7.5 million); Division of Corrections, $5.5 million ($6.7 million); Department of Taxation, $1.5 million ($3 million); Department of Public Works, $1.2 million ($1.2 million); Department of Economic and Community Development, $4 million ($7.4 million).

Occupational Health and Safety, $500,000, ($1.5 million); Commerce Department, $1.3 million ($1.5 million); attorney general, $1.5 million ($2.3 million); auditor, $500,000 ($5.1 million); Civil Rights Commission, $500,000 ($900,000); Department of Personnel, $300,000 ($2.9 million).

The committee also restored all or part of special subsidies cut by the Senate for Cleveland State University, $1 million; Wright State University, $350,000; Miami University, $200,000; university branch campuses, $800,000, and county boards of education.

The committee put in $1 million in new money to cover expenses anticipated in the phasing out Cleveland State Hospital.

These Senate cuts were allowed to stand:

Ohio Arts Council, $600,000; Educational Television Network, $350,000; Department of Public Welfare, $24 million; Mental Health and Mental Retardation, $5.4 million; treasurer, $150,000; secretary of state, $200,000; Department of Finance, $180,000; Industrial Relations, $100,000; Department of Insurance, $100,000; Department of Health, $1.7 million, and various capital improvements, $2.3 million.

The cuts made in Gilligan's original budget total about $63.8 million in the conference committee bill, compared to $100 million as the measure left the Senate.

Sen. Oliver Ocasek, D-27 Akron, said he carefully studied the changes worked out between the House and Senate and concluded: "It's a draw."

The bill also prohibits the youths in that category from becoming city policemen or highway patrolmen. They could, however, be elected and serve as sheriffs.

A bill greatly expanding the authority of the Ohio Civil Rights Commission was pulled from the floor just before it was due for a vote. It was rescheduled for today's floor calendar.

Meanwhile, the Senate passed 30-2 and sent to the House an emergency bill bringing state water pollution programs into conformity with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act of 1972.

The bill makes sweeping changes in existing laws and regulations, but generally brings permit and regulation powers under the director of the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency, subject to federal guidelines.

In addition to the permit exemptions for farms and strip mines, the bill allows variances for thermal pollution. It provides a 10-year grace period for thermal polluters, as long as fish and wildlife are protected.

Senators approved four other bills and sent them to the House.

They would:

—Permit county-election boards to award ballot printing contracts to the lowest bidder, no matter where the contractor is located. Present law requires them to be printed inside the county.

—Authorize the state treasurer and the governing boards of political subdivisions to repurchase short term investment notes at periods up to five years.

—Permit legal reserve life insurance companies to invest up to 10 per cent in real estate.

—Permit multiple group life company insurers to locate trust funds outside the state.

Approved in the House were bills that would:

—Require the headlights of motorcycles and snowmobiles to be on even during daylight hours on highways.

—Empower the State Employees Compensation Board to enter into a contract for health insurance for state employees and elected state officials.

—Required that youths not accused of a felony be detained in places other than an adult jail.

—Allow cemetery land that contains no graves to be taken for highway purposes over the next two years.

Grant Approved For City Sewage Treatment Plant

The Federal Environmental Protection Agency has approved a $5,052,675 grant for Circleville to build a sewage treatment plant, Circleville Public Utilities Director Charles Taylor learned Wednesday.

The total amount of money to be received by the city in the form of a loan is $6,636,900. The city will pay back 25 per cent of this total amount over a 25 year period.

The city's share of the cost of construction will be $1,584,225. Taylor said today the city actually submitted an application for $4,719,000, of which $3,539,250 was the grant portion and $1,179,750 the city's share.

According to Taylor, Federal EPA authorities and the engineering firm of Hazen and Sawyer, New York, employed by the city to design the plant, increased the dollar amount of the application.

Taylor said he was glad of the increase because the city will be 100 per cent financially responsible for any amount over the total federally approved funding. However, he expressed the opinion the project will not be as costly as the approved amount. The increased grant should not effect the city sewer rate, he stated.

"We are very lucky to get this project funded," Taylor reported. "Of 180 applications in Ohio, only 14 have been approved or are near approval. This is a great thing for the city of Circleville and it was made possible through the efforts of City Council and Mayor Frank Barnhill."

The funding does not include the proposed 48-inch interceptor line which will replace the present lift station at Ted Lewis Park, Taylor said. However, funding was approved with the understanding the line will be completed at the same time the plant is completed.

The city public utilities director said the contract will be advertised about July 16, the bids will be opened Aug. 15 or 16, the contract will be awarded about Sept. 1 and construction should start about Sept. 30.

Completion date for construction of the plant is June 30, 1975, and the target date for the plant to go into operation is Aug. 30, 1975.

Senate OKs Cost-Of-Living Boost For Social Security

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has approved a 5.6 per cent cost-of-living increase for persons on Social Security, a move that appears to have a good chance for House acceptance.

As adopted by the Senate 72 to 17, the higher Social Security payments would not result in increased payroll deductions.

If approved by the House, the increase would face an uncertain fate in the White House. Nixon administration officials have opposed the higher payments.

Managers of the measure said they would try to arrange a Senate-House conference today.

The Social Security hike was a rider, attached with many others, to a bill that would extend the present $465-billion national debt ceiling for 5 months.

This ceiling drops to $400 billion at midnight Saturday, unless the bill is enacted. The government could not meet its financial obligations under the lower figure.

The Senate remained in session until 11 p.m. Wednesday taking 15 separate roll call votes to complete action on the debt limit measure.

Other riders would liberalize benefits for aged, blind and disabled persons on the welfare rolls; try again to enact the ban on use of federal funds to bomb Cambodia, which President Nixon vetoed yesterday on an appropriations bill; restrict sharply the President's impoundment powers; revise the $1 tax checkoff presidential campaign financing plan; fix a $268.70 billion spending ceiling for fiscal 1974; increase from $2,100 to $3,000-a-year the amount a Social Security recipient can earn without losing any retirement payments, and liberalize the emergency unemployment compensation program for long-term jobless persons.

'Enemies List' Social Register?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some call it Washington's newest Social Register, but the White House didn't intend it that way.

Nearly 200 names of the rich, the famous and the not-so-famous who didn't get along with the Nixon administration are inscribed on a so-called "Enemies List." John W. Dean III says the list came from White House files entitled Opponents List and Political Enemies Project.

The list itself and various related memoranda were turned over to the Senate Watergate committee Wednesday by the 34-year-old fired White House counsel scheduled to return to the witness chair today for his fourth day of testimony.

Some of those named expressed surprise. Others considered it an honor, and several people in the hearing room were disappointed at not making what one called "Washington's newest Social Register."

Former White House special counsel Charles W. Colson, whom Dean described as having had a key role in the enemies project, said the lengthy list prepared by the late George T. Bell in 1971 was kept solely to insure that those named weren't invited to the White House for dinner.

Dean testified that priority targets were selected from the list by Colson and other White House officials, in keeping with a plan to "use the available federal machinery to screw our political enemies."

Dean admitted he drew up the plan on Aug. 16, 1971, and submitted it in a confidential memorandum to

Court Voids EPA Action On Pollution

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— The 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals today overturned federal approval of pollution abatement plans for Kentucky and Ohio because data from interested industries and other parties was not taken into consideration by the Federal Environmental Protection Agency.

A three-judge panel vacated approval of the state plans and remanded the case to the EPA for compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act. The act requires that interested parties participate in rulemaking procedures through submission of written data, views and arguments.

The suit against the EPA was filed by Buckeye Power Inc., East Kentucky Rural Electrical Cooperative Corp., and Big Rivers Rural Electric Cooperative Corp.

The public utility companies operate power plants in Ohio and Kentucky. They contended that approval of the state plans by the EPA violated the law because:

—Interested parties were not permitted to participate in proceedings.

—The EPA disregarded the fact that it is "impossible" for the industries to comply with the standards of the plans.

—The plans were approved without the filing of an Environmental Impact Statement.

Core Of Scandal Still Truthfulness

WASHINGTON (AP) — Time and again, the Senate's Watergate investigators return to the question no single witness can answer: Who is telling the truth?

President Nixon denies involvement in the Watergate affair, or knowledge of the coverup that cloaked its origins throughout the 1972 campaign and well into 1973.

John W. Dean III testifies that Nixon knew of the coverup, of the efforts to prevent the scandal from reaching the White House or his campaign organization.

The White House counter-attacks, charging that Dean was the principal actor in the coverup, and the author of the constitutional and political crisis spawned by the scandal.

Dean denies that, says that as a White House subordinate there was no way he could have done all that.

And the truth of the matter is not yet evident. One man's fact is innuendo to

Conference OnForce Cuts

VIENNA (AP) — The North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Warsaw Pact announced today they would discuss "mutual reduction of forces and armaments and associated measures in central Europe" in a conference beginning here Oct. 30.

The announcement was made in a final communique issued after a 30-minute session of the 19 delegations of the two military pacts. They concluded almost five months of preparatory talks on the issue of troop cuts.

The communique added that the participants in the preparatory meetings agreed that "the general objective of the negotiations will be to contribute to a more stable relationship and to the strengthening of peace."

The forecast was that the troop cut talks would be tough and long.

The communique left out the word "balanced" for the cuts to be discussed. The label for the talks had been "mutual and balanced forces reductions" when the preparatory round opened Jan. 31.

But Henry Kissinger said at the end of the Nixon-Brezhnev talks a few days ago that adjectives were not important and that the Soviets had pledged to enter "serious negotiations" on the troop cut issue.

The date and place of the fall talks had been a foregone conclusion after they were mentioned in a summary of the Nixon-Brezhnev talks. The final communique on the preliminary round here merely put the NATO seal of approval on it.

NATO had pressed for a fall date and the Soviet agreement with it was considered a concession.

Service chief Johnnie Walters. He complained that, because of a "lack of guts and effort" on the part of Republican appointees at IRS, the White House had been unable to:

— "Stimulate audits of persons who should be audited";

— Obtain IRS information "regarding our political enemies";

— Place President Nixon's supporters in the IRS bureaucracy;

— Or "crack down on the multitude of tax-exempt foundations that feed left-wing political causes."

Asked for his reaction to being named on the list, actor Paul Newman, Dean, the fired White House counsel, claims first-hand knowledge that Nixon was aware last September of the cover-up. Sen. Edward J. Gurney, R-Fla., terms Dean's account no more than an impression.

Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, D-N.M., put the quandary to Dean:

"How do you expect us to resolve the truth in this matter when you state one story ... and the President states another story ... and he does not appear before this committee?"

"I strongly believe that the truth always emerges," Dean replied. "I do not know if it will be during these hearings. I do not know if it will be as the result of further activities of the special prosecutor. I do not know if it will be through the processes of history. But the truth will out some day."

With that, he offered to take a lie detector test.

"I am sending Gordon Liddy to pick up my award. I would like to thank John Mitchell, Jeb Magruder, John Dean III and Maurice Stans for making this award possible."

The longer list of opponents was divided into various groups and subgroups. Under "Politicos," it named 10 Democratic senators, six House members, "12 black congressmen" and three "miscellaneous politicians."

There were 57 journalists and three newspapers listed under "Media," 10 celebrities, 21 "Academics," 53 in the business category, including 29 under "Business Executives Move for Vietnam Peace and New National Priorities," 14 labor leaders and 18 organizations, most of which had one or more of their leaders named with them.

John and Sharon Parmenter and boys have moved from the Wilkins property to their new home on Harsh Ave.

Several ladies from Pickaway County boarded the bus at midnight last Monday for a four day vacation to Atlanta, Ga.

While there they went on several tours including Warm Springs, the little white house, where President Franklin Roosevelt went for vacations. They saw the beautiful flower gardens and toured Macon and went to Old Atlanta which was built under ground. All kinds of clerio ships, gift shops, and restaurants were in the underground area.

Those on the trip from here were: Margaret Finch, Vonna Rasor, Emma McGhee, Irene Williams, Eva Keller, Rosalee Williamson, Hazel Hudson and Ruby Smith.

Mrs. Helen Browning was honored Sunday afternoon with a birthday picnic at the home of her son, Bill Browning, in Ashville. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Browning and sons.

On Sunday morning, a beautiful wedding ceremony was performed during morning worship, uniting into marriage Mrs. Ruth Lucille Glick and Mr. James Belcher, at the United Methodist Church. Rev. Ken Beals officiating.

Our community was saddened by the death of Mr. Jess Brady last Tuesday at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Brazilian Men Said Turning To Plastic Surgery For Looks

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Brazilian men who feel that a younger look helps them in business are resorting more to plastic surgery, two leading surgeons here report.

"A man can't look too old in some executive positions," says Dr. Ivo Pitanguy, Brazil's most famous plastic surgeon. "When you reach 40 and still must compete in business, you have to look younger to do it."

About 12,000 operations are performed here every year.

Another plastic surgeon, Dr. Pedro Valente, says: "Right now, 20 per cent of the people undergoing surgery here to make them look younger are men. A decade ago it was 5 per cent."

These men are having many of the same operations the ladies have been raving about for years. Most are about 40.

"Most requests we get for executives set 35-38 as a maximum age," said Henry Charles of the Rio office of Snelling & Snelling, a worldwide employment agency with headquarters in the United States. "After 40, it becomes more difficult for a man to find a job."

Plastic surgeons say they can slow a man's apparent aging with a standard facelift and touchups every 10 years afterward.

A facelift in Rio, including the eyes, costs $2,500-$3,000. Without the eyes, it's $1,000 less. A slimmer abdomen costs around $2,500. About $2,000 takes care of a man's flabby chest.

A Paper Jungle

No less than 5 billion new federal records are being created each year and stored in government buildings "at a cost of $3 a square foot, on the average," according to a Washington dispatch.

What's more, the cost of this papermill is not limited to government agencies. It costs the nation's small businessmen at least $2 billion a year to supply the information demanded by Washington.

The paper burden has doubled and redoubled since the Hoover Commission 18 years ago found "reporting to the government is excessively expensive and burdensome."

Following that report, President Eisenhower in 1956 ordered the Bureau of the Budget to reduce the paper burden on business.

But still it grows. Red tape accumulation continues at a record pace. Obviously, it will require stronger action than a presidential directive — such as President Eisenhower issued in 1956 — to relieve business of some of its reporting burden.

What is required is a new commission, fashioned along the lines of the Hoover Commissions, but armed with the power to put into effect improvements approved by Congress. This might not succeed, but anything less will surely fail.

No Place For 'Loners'

Medical science and modern tools of economic progress have given man more years to enjoy life, even in the most primitive societies. In fact, as UN studies show, the most backward regions show the greatest comparative advancement in longevity.

This is a well-earned feather in the hats of the scientists who have brought it about, but it compounds the problems of this age group, as is 5 per cent of the world's population as a whole. And this is the fastest overpopulation for the future. Regional problems of population density are not the only challenges to be overcome in the years ahead.

Another effect of growing lifespans is the increasing numbers of persons over 65 years of age in all populations, but particularly in the more advanced countries.

More than 8 per cent of North America's population is now of growing age group of all. Is modern industrial society, with its tendency toward earlier retirement from productive life, in conflict with population trends?

This question is one the most advanced nation cannot avoid much longer, as populations continue what now appears to be a relentless geometric progression.

Fake History?

By JEFFREY HART

A major, big-budget movie is now in the works, starring Burt Lancaster and Robert Ryan, and setting forth the view that John F. Kennedy was assassinated not by Lee Harvey Oswald but as the result of a plot involving — and you can guess who, can't you? — Texas oilmen, retired right-wing generals, C.I.A. agents and anti-Castro Cubans, plus the Mafia. It's to be called "Executive Action."

Now, just on the face of it, this is a strange phenomenon. The Warren Commission established the facts in the case, and left little doubt of Oswald's culpability. Though the commission was a bit vague on his motivation, a subsequent study by Albert H. Newman, called "The Assassination of John F. Kennedy: The Reasons Why," established Oswald's motivation beyond all doubt: pro-Castro ideological passion.

Why, then, stand history on its head and bring in the oilmen and the other right-wingers?

And is there not something profoundly illegitimate about such fictionalization of history, taking individuals who actually existed and placing them in fictionalized situations that did not occur?

As a matter of fact, "Executive Action" is only the latest and most extreme version of this curious kind of production. The German playwright Rolf Hochhuth has given us two historical figures, Pope Pius II and Winston Churchill, in fictionalized and historically misleading settings. We have had two fictitious treatments of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg: the play "Inquest" by Donald Freed, and the novel "The Book of Daniel," by E. L. Doctorow. And there have been others.

Now these things are not "revisionist" arguments, in which, on the basis of new evidence, it is argued that previous judgments were incorrect. That would be perfectly legitimate. No, they do not present any new evidence; they merely transport the real characters into a situation that did not exist.

Interestingly enough, the fictionalizing of the Rosenbergs is connected with the Kennedy assassination movie: Donald Freed, the author of "Inquest," is one of the three principal script writers for the movie. The others are Dalton Trumbo, a notable Old Leftist and member of the Hollywood Ten group, and now surfacing after some years of obscurity, Mark Lane, the former left-wing Congressman, whose most recent venture was the publication of some faked interviews with Vietnam veterans. The movie is being bankrolled by one Herbert Magdison, a Los Angeles businessman described as having been active in the "anti-war movement."

It seems to me that it is inadequate here to say that what we are dealing with is merely a group of leftist zealots eager to use any stick to beat their favorite goblins, the Texan oilmen, the retired generals, and so on. For that purpose, a powerful piece of pure fiction, like the movie "Dr. Strangelove" would surely be more effective.

Nor is such a movie likely to persuade anyone who knows anything about the Kennedy assassination that such right-wingers are the real culprits. A few boos may swallow the story, but would that justify all the effort and expenditure?

Hardly. Instead, such fictionalizing of recent history is one form of liberal-left myth-making. The truth is that the prominent assassinations of the 1960s were either the work of leftists or nuts — not rightists. The truth is that virtually all the domestic violence of the 1960s came from the left, not the right. But that fact is hard to face. The liberals and the left consider themselves to be — and to be unshakable — good. And not only good, but rational and benevolent. Therefore, the powerful emotional drive exists to believe, or half believe, or pretend, that the violence "really" came from oilmen, or whatever.

Free of charge, I propose the following movie scripts to Mr. Magdison: Colonel Rudolph Abel, Interpol Triple Agent; How Alger Hiss Went to Jail to Save the U. N.; How Julius and Ethel Died for the Girl Scout Movement.

180-240 Deaths, 12,000 Injuries Over Holiday?

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Safety Council estimates that between 180 and 240 persons may be killed in traffic accidents during the Fourth of July holiday.

The estimate covers the period from 6 p.m. Tuesday, July 3, to midnight Wednesday, July 4, in each daylight time zone. The six hours of Tuesday are included to account for those leaving on trips immediately after work.

During the same 30-hour period, the council estimated 10,000 to 12,000 persons may suffer disabling injuries in motor traffic accidents. It defines disabling injuries as those requiring hospital care beyond the day of the accident.

The last time Independence Day fell on Wednesday was in 1962. There were 146 fatalities that year.

Brazil, the fifth largest country in the world, is bordered by every country in South America except Chile and Ecuador.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, June 28, the 178th day of 1973. There are 186 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1914, the heir to the throne of Austria-Hungary, Archduke Francis Ferdinand, was assassinated at Sarajevo, Bosnia. It was the spark that set off World War I.

On this date:

In 1778, the Revolutionary war Battle of Monmouth, N.J. was fought. A heroine's role was played by Molly Pitcher.

In 1838, Britain's Queen Victoria was crowned.

In 1919, the Versailles treaty was signed in France after World War I.

In 1944, a Republican National Convention in Chicago nominated New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey for president.

In 1950, in the Korean war, North Korean soldiers captured Seoul.

Ten years ago: Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev visited East Berlin, two days after a visit to West Berlin by President John F. Kennedy.

Five years ago: President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a bill increasing taxes and reducing government spending.

One year ago: President Nixon directed that draftees not be sent to Vietnam unless they volunteer.

Today's birthdays: composer Richard Rodgers is 77 years old.

OSU, Hospital Cannot Be Sued

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University and its hospital are instrumentalities of the state and cannot be sued without consent of the General Assembly, the Ohio Supreme Court ruled Wednesday.

The court affirmed lower court decision dismissing the suit Esther H. and Roland T. Thacker of Bethel, which was filed against the school, its hospital and a doctor.

Mrs. Thacker, a surgical patient at the hospital in 1970, said she lost the use of her right foot and leg as the result of negligence of hospital personnel.

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things that make life worth living:

The sound of a door closing behind someone leaving who has stayed too long.

Sleeping late on weekends.

Swallowing a watermelon seed as a child and wondering if it will turn the inside of your stomach into a watermelon patch.

Working a loose baby tooth out all by yourself before your mother can get you to a dentist.

Passing a note to your girl friend in grammar school when the teacher turned her back to write on the blackboard.

Stepping on wet sidewalk cement and wondering if your footprints would remain there for later generations to marvel at.

Delivering a paper route the first day and wondering just how it was going to help make you famous later in life. Hadn't all great men delivered newspapers in their youth?

Having the postman finally bring the letter for which you've been haunting the mailbox for months.

The smell of a good bakery shop on a wintry day.

Going on an overnight hike with your dad and listening later to him brag about how rough it had been.

Tasting an initial caviar-loaded cracker and thinking it was hardly worthwhile to become rich if you had to eat stuff like that all the time.

The envious respect the other boys in the neighborhood showed when you told them about being taken to see a real live burlesque show by a raffish older cousin.

The profound feeling of the mystery of life you had when you went through a large dairy and saw a calf being born.

For these and other intimations of gladness and sadness that enlighten our lives, our thanks, Amen.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Lately, I have a tendency to turn my ankle and sprain it. Some people say the best way is to walk on it immediately after. Others say, "Rest it."

What do you think?

Mrs. G.F., Ohio

Dear Mrs. F.:

My immediate reaction is that you should avoid the opinion of well-meaning friends and do the sensible thing—have your own doctor evaluate the problem.

First, of course, you should find out why you tend to sprain your ankle so often. Can it possibly be your shoes? The new high platform shoes have in many instances been responsible for the sprained ankle menace that has become almost epidemic.

One of the most difficult problems that presents itself to doctors is the diagnosis of a sprained ankle, with or without a tear of the ligaments.

Sometimes, fluid and blood accumulate within the ankle joint. Occasionally, muscles are torn and, not infrequently, a fracture has been overlooked by the homemade diagnosis of a sprained ankle.

That which determines the treatment is the exact diagnosis. On it depends the decision to strap the ankle, to place it in a cast, and to limit activity.

The safest rule is to rest a sprained ankle until the diagnosis is made.

In some simple cases, such as the sprained ankle with moderate swelling, and with a limited amount of blood beneath the surface, patients are permitted to walk after 24 or 36 hours.

Our 6-year old daughter is allergic. We have been advised to make her room free from possible causes of allergy.

Is it possible to eliminate all offending substances this way?

Mrs. L.L., Pa.

Dear Mrs. L.:

If dust and molds are thought to be the offending substances, some attempt can be made to make the room allergy-free.

It is extremely difficult to eliminate all factors, but you can try by keeping the room uncluttered, thoroughly dusted, and free from everything but the most essential furniture. Rugs and carpeting should be removed.

The mattress and pillows should be covered with some plastic material. Avoid wool blankets. Choose smooth simple materials for bedspread and curtains. Avoid all fabrics with fuzzy or furry surfaces.

Open bookcases are excellent accumulators of dust. So are small pieces of bric-a-brac, and lampshades that cannot be cleaned with a damp cloth.

The bathroom adjacent to the child's room may contain allergy offender Aerosol sprays, powders, and even bubble bath may create a reaction.

Molds and mildew present another kind of problem. A number of excellent chemicals are now used to control the contamination by these substances.

The problem of making a house entirely allergy-free is almost impossible. But many things can be done while your child is being studied and treated by her doctor.

Economic Indicators Rebound

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's index of leading economic indicators rebounded with a strong increase in May after a sharp decline a month earlier, the Commerce Department said Wednesday.

The April decline was widely interpreted as showing that the pace of the fast-expanding economy was beginning to slow.

The index, which is supposed to be sensitive to broad ups and downs in the economy, rose 1.5 per cent last month, the department said, with six of the eight economic indicators available showing improvement.

The Nixon administration has been watching for signs that the economy will cool and relieve some of the inflationary pressures building up. The May report of leading indicators gave no such signal.

The April index, which earlier showed a drop of 0.6 per cent, actually fell by 1.7 per cent after revisions were made, the department said.

The six indicators showing improvement were initial claims for unemployment insurance, new orders for durable goods, contracts and orders for plant and equipment, the ratio of prices and labor costs, industrial materials prices and building permits.

There were unfavorable movements in the average work week and stock prices, the report said.

Lima Theater Raided By Police

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — The manager, projectionist and ticket taker at the Cinema One Theater in Lima were arrested and charged with exhibiting obscene material following a raid on the theater Tuesday afternoon.

Allen County sheriff's deputies, accompanied by the county prosecutor, staged the raid.

The same theater was closed once before for allegedly violating a public nuisance law, but later won an appeal in federal court and reopened.

Lebanon Inmate On Strike To Protest His Isolation

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — An inmate of Lebanon Correctional Institution has been on a hunger strike since Monday to "focus public attention on the treatment of inmates at the prison," a statement released in Columbus said Wednesday.

The statement by the Ohio Prisoners Labor Union said inmate Don Jackson "will continue his fast until such time as he is given some reason for his removal from the main population."

Lebanon Supt. William Dallman said, "If he's on a hunger strike, then he is the only one who knows about it."

Jackson, a member of the labor union, has been held in administrative isolation for nearly 11 days with seven other inmates, Dallman said. The men, he said, have been "restricted from any movement among the other inmates."

The superintendent said the eight "were believed to be involved in attempting to cause a disturbance." He said the union had called a one-day boycott of the dining hall on June 17 in an attempt to organize inmates.

Dallman said, "For the entire day, we had a normal turnout. The noon meal was lighter than normal, but the supper meal was attended by 300 persons more than normal."

The correctional facility has an inmate population of 1,350.

The statement said 80 per cent of the inmates supported the boycott.

Dallman said an investigation of the eight inmates will be completed by Friday. He said disciplinary action could range from reduction of privileges to transfer to a maximum security prison, like the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility.

The inmate statement called for higher pay, insurance coverage for work-related accidents, improved medical care, legal representation at Adult Parole Authority hearings, better working conditions, an end to political harassment and formation of a labor union.

Dr. Bennett J. Cooper, director of the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections, has said he does not recognize the Ohio Prisoners Labor Union and will not negotiate with it.

Bread Carrier Held By Police

SAN YSIDRO, Calif. (AP) — Customs inspectors thought the man walking into the United States looked a bit too nervous for someone carrying only a few loaves of bread.

So Inspector B.A. Krussel told his men to take a look at the bread. Officers crushed the loaves and inside found 80 ounces of high-grade heroin and cocaine.

Customs agents said Tuesday they arrested a man who identified himself as Pablo Carlos Villagran, 30, of Tijuana, Mexico, in the incident late Monday. He was booked into San Diego County jail for investigation of smuggling drugs.

Food Industries To Freeze Prices

ROME (AP) — A large number of Italian food industries have decided to freeze their prices for three months, an announcement said Tuesday night.

The move was prompted by the Confederation of Italian Industries in an effort to stop skyrocketing inflation and the slipping of the lira.

Launch Drive To Block Robin Deaths

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— An animal welfare organization launched a campaign Wednesday to stop the slaughter of thousands of robins in Canada's Maritime Provinces.

The International Fund for Animal Welfare has placed ads in Cleveland newspapers requesting funds to help pressure the Canadian government into halting the robin shooting.

The organization claims that blueberry farmers are shooting the birds because they are destroying their crops.

The animal welfare group said the slaughter takes place when the birds flock together on their migratory trip from New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, south to the United States.

R. Allen Kilpatrick, Canadian consul in Cleveland, said some permits for shooting were granted by his government last year and some were expected to be granted this year because of a serious threat to crops.

"I hesitate to make a statement on this without more knowledge of the subject," Kilpatrick said. "But Canada certainly has been responsive to preserving nature, birds and animals."

The International Fund for Animal Welfare has 82,000 members in the United States and Canada.

Combine whipped cream with mayonnaise and drained crushed pineapple and serve over a jellied strawberry salad.

Flowers and leaves may be shaped from cut-up colored gumdrops. Nice to use as decoration on frosted cupcakes.

Earl Browder, Ex-Red Party Chief, Dies

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Earl Russell Browder, Communist Party candidate for president in 1936 and 1940, is dead at age 82.

Browder, who was general secretary of the Communist Party in the United States from 1930 to 1945, died in his sleep Wednesday at his home here.

The Communist Party became the Communist Political Association in 1944. In 1946 Browder was expelled from the association as a "revisionist" for supporting President Roosevelt's policies.

Committee Approves Big Budget

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Retirement Study Committee approved Wednesday a 1973-74 budget of $126,776, about $43,000 more than the committee will spend this year, according to John Hale, the commission's new director.

Hale said the extra money will be used to expand agency activities and "do what the law says we are supposed to do." The commission studies the state's retirement system to determine the best ways to invest money and provide services.

He served prison terms from 1917 through 1920 and in 1941 and 1942 for opposing American war policy.

From 1926 to 1929 he served as director of the Pan-Pacific Trade Union Secretariat in Shanghai, helping to organize the Communist drive in China. He was a member of the executive committee of the Communist International Movement from 1935 to 1940.

Child Abuse Measure Adoption Is Urged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The legislature should adopt a bill to report suspected cases of child abuse and neglect to the proper authorities, Paul H. Coleman, legal affairs director of the state Welfare Department, said today.

The bill also provides for the first statutory definition of child abuse, and would make emotional mistreatment of a child a form of abuse.

Forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The cold front predicted by the National Weather Service moved into western Ohio on schedule Thursday morning and brought on a few showers in the western counties.

As the front advances slowly eastward showers and thundershowers will spread over the entire state during the day. Some of these thundershowers could become locally heavy at times, the weather service said, especially in the eastern counties.

Temperatures today will be considerably cooler than Wednesday due to the heavy cloudiness and precipitation. Afternoon readings will climb only into the 70s. Lows tonight will drop into the upper 50s and lower 60s.

Some showers will continue in the east on Friday, and elsewhere cloudy skies will prevail with temperatures mostly in the 70s.

Forecasts

OHIO

Cloudy tonight and Friday with a chance of showers tonight and in the east Friday. Lows tonight in the upper 50s and low 60s. Highs Friday in the low to mid 70s.

Wallace Given .45 Revolver

GADSDEN, Ala. (AP) — Gov. George C. Wallace has accepted a Colt .45 revolver as a gift of the Alabama Peace Officers Association.

Wallace recalled for 500 members at their annual meeting Wednesday the last year he was shot and crippled by a would-be assassin at Laurel, Md.

Wallace said: "I remember lying there, and this man kneeling beside me with a gun in his hand. It was pointed right at my head. I asked him, 'Who are you?' And he answered, 'I'm a Secret Service agent, governor.'"

"And I told him, 'Well, how about moving that gun away from my head. I've been shot at enough for one day.'"

Weaver, all of Laurelville, Mrs. Rosdella Congrove and family of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Don Congrove and family, Johnny Congrove and Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, all of Adelphi and Miss Patty Courson of Chillicothe.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith Tuesday were Ben Barrett of Rutland, and William Anderson of New Haven, W. Va.

The W.S.C.S. of Laurel Hills United Methodist Church met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Denver Drum. Assisting hostess was Mrs. Jack Notestone.

Opening song "What A Friend We Have in Jesus." Devotions, taken from 5th chapter of Ephesians, were given by Mrs. Marbelle Higgins. Opening prayer was by Mrs. Dick Karr.

The lesson topic was "Music" given by Mrs. Higgins. Memorial services for Mrs. Nancy Strous presented by Mrs. Denver Drum and Mrs. Dick Karr. Spiritual Life Lesson was read from Psalm 46, along with "Christian Nightingale."

Refreshments were served to 10 members and two guests.

Chris DeLong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan DeLong Sr., and Bill DeLong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dalton DeLong, spent a week with the Farm Bureau Summer Youth Conference at Otterbein College, Westerville.

Gael Jinks has been in Laurelville the last couple weeks on business.

The Rev. and Mrs. William Beougher were honored guests at a farewell party at Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith's given by the members of the Haynes Methodist Church.

There were nineteen present, Rev. and Mrs. Beougher favored those present with two songs. They were presented a bedspread as a farewell gift.

Refreshments were served to the guests.

The Women's Missionary Society of Laurelville Church of God met in the Church basement for the regular monthly meeting.

Alma Radabaugh led the group in opening prayer. Josephine Hardmar read from the sixth chapter of Galatians. A poem was read by Margie Elbert.

It was decided to purchase new sheets for the dormitories at Warsaw Camp grounds. Plans were made for a Yard and Bake Sale to be held at Marie Johnstons.

Charlotte Ash's resignation as secretary-treasure was accepted and Carol Holbrook was elected to fill the position.

The meeting was closed with Judy Summers having the closing prayer. Refreshments of chips, cookies and tea were served to the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Karshner of Columbus were Thursday afternoon visitors of Mrs. Ray Poling.

Frances Swackhammer returned to Berger Hospital Thursday, then was transferred to Mt. Carmel Hospital in Columbus.

Sneek-A-Peek

AT BOOKS IN THE CHILDREN'S LIBRARY

Some scientists have predicted that the day is coming when we will do our every-day travelling by air. They foresee the day when we will be flying off to work, to school, or to the grocery in small planes or helicopters. Does that mean you may have to buy Junior his first plane when he turns sixteen, and teach him how to fly? What a frightening thought! Anyway, flying is definitely a popular subject for young readers. They are particularly interested in the sports connected with flying.

"Flying — A Golden Science Book" is written by Barry Schiff, and illustrated with pictures and photos by Henri Fluchere. This is a thorough, no-nonsense study of flight. It includes the science of flight, with explanations of airspeed, air pressure, lift, drag, aircraft engines, flight instruments, and maneuvers. This could be a handbook for beginning students of flying.

"Man In Flight — How the Airlines Operate" is by Creighton Peet. This book describes commercial airlines. It shows various airports and their equipment. It also includes information on how to convert your old jet into a museum or restaurant! That will give Junior something to work on in the garage in his spare time.

"The Wright Brothers" by Ruth Franchere is the story of Orville and Wilbur from their beginning in Dayton, Ohio, to their successful flight. It is illustrated by Louis Glanzman. This is one of our new biographies for young people. We have many other new biographies in paper-back form.

Included in our new paper-back biographies are books about such famous people as: John F. Kennedy, Thomas Alva Edison, George Washington Carver, Robert F. Kennedy, Sitting Bull, Helen Keller, Sam Houston, Florence Nightingale, George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Eleanor Roosevelt,

Group Of Investors Seek Information

NEW YORK (AP) — A group of investors has demanded in a federal court class action here that the New York Stock Exchange reveal the names of members who are on an early warning list of financially troubled firms.

The Big Board said last week that 68 firms are on the list and that 9 of the 68 are the cause of intensive concern because of the magnitude of their problems. The exchange did not reveal the firm names.

More Housing Costs Bared

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — A White House spokesman says the use of federal funds for some $700,000 worth of improvements to President Nixon's San Clemente home were requested by the Secret Service.

He said the President had no knowledge of the details.

Deputy Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren said Tuesday that the Secret Service believed the improvements—which included $1,800 for a flagpole and $4,850 to furnish the President's study—were necessary for the security of the first family. Warren refused to comment when asked why such improvements were needed for presidential security. He said only that Nixon's study is used as an office and the furnishings in it would be returned to the government at the end of the President's term.

Questions on the validity of other improvements to the Western White House would have to be referred to the General Services Administration, he said.

Court Frees Man On Technical Grounds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday ordered a new trial for a Cincinnati area man convicted for carrying a concealed weapon because jurors had read a newspaper article that mentioned a previous conviction.

The court reversed the verdict against James P. Craven of Bond Hill, saying the fact jurors said they would not be swayed by the article was not a cure for prejudicial improprieties.

CONTRACT SIGNED — Officials of United Electrical Workers Local 723 and USS Chemicals Division of US Steel Corporation, Molded Plastic Products, signed a 3-year contract Wednesday. The contract granted a 60 cent pay increase over three years and included improvement in the pension and insurance program and an additional paid holiday. Present at the signing were, seated from the left: Norma Barnes, UE local financial secretary; Esther Isaac, UE local president; E. Wayne Miller, plant manager; Donald D. Hannahs, superintendent, personnel services. Standing: James E. Lancaster, plant steward for UE local; Melvin L. Womack, union international representative from Dayton office; W. Cranston Fix, director of personnel services, USS Chemicals; Karen S. Downing, local recording secretary. The contract was approved June 21 by a vote of the local membership.

Many Topics Discussed By Red Cross Board

A variety of subjects were on the agenda of the Wednesday evening meeting of the board of directors for Pickaway County Chapter American Red Cross in the chapter house.

Announced was a special visit of the Bloodmobile to the local RCA Plant from noon until 6 p.m. on July 13. Donors will be recruited from other area plants. Joe LaFontaine said that plans have been made for General Electric employees to leave work to donate blood. The next regular visit will be July 31.

Mrs. Etha Mae Wolford, executive secretary, said that assistance to military personnel and families has greatly decreased. She announced that a regular first aid class is being planned for this summer.

Melvin Erlich and David Shank, heading the Water Safety Program, told of a new plan of water familiarization now under way at Ashville. Children in the 5-6 age group are being taught to not fear water in preparation for swimming lessons. New classes are scheduled to start at Deer Creek Dam on July 16 for beginner and advanced swimmers with junior and senior life saving classes beginning July 23.

More volunteers and volunteers are needed at Berger Hospital for regular assistance and in the emergency room, at area nursing homes and in private homes where there is illness. Beginning with teenagers there is no age barrier in this work and both sexes are needed in all places along with regular drivers for the station wagons.

At Smith Memorial Park, Pam Sellers has initiated a recreation program for children age 6-11 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings from 9:30-11. Eight boys from Hedges House have been recruited as helpers and the program is being well accepted. Volunteers are needed to extend the activities to other city parks.

Gilligan Protects Parochial Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John Gilligan says he will protect state funds already appropriated for aid to parents of private school students until this week's U.S. Supreme Court decision is studied.

The high court ruled state aid to parents of private school children in New York and Pennsylvania was illegal.

Cambodia Glad U.S. Bombing Will Continue

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — The government gave a predictable welcome today to President Nixon's decision to continue bombing in Cambodia.

It said this could enable its forces to control the military situation and shorten the war.

Watergate Prober Cancels College Talk

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Carl Bernstein, who earned a Pulitzer Prize for his reporting on the Watergate break-in, has cancelled a speech scheduled for Friday at the University of Cincinnati.

He said the move was necessitated by developments of the Watergate hearing.

Nixon's decision coincided with the Phnom Penh command announcing a series of offensive operations to recapture lost territory in several areas. The operations reportedly were on a relatively minor scale.

Maj. Gen. Sosthene Fernandez, commander of the armed forces, said continuing American air bombardment will inflict heavy losses on Khmer Rouge insurgents and their North Vietnamese allies, "and the war will end very quickly."

The war has been going on for more than three years and U.S. bombing during that time has failed to prevent the loss of all but about 15 per cent of Cambodia's territory to the Communists.

Meanwhile, U.S. tactical air strikes were continuing only nine miles from the city, and the thud and rumble of exploding bombs rattled Phnom Penh's doors and windows.

Nine miles south of the capital, government troops were reported in action around the district towns of Kompong Kantuot and Day Kraham in an area which has been under increasing insurgent pressure during the last week.

Trade Step Taken

MANILA (AP) — A major step towards establishing trade relations between the Philippines and mainland China has started through the opening of a direct bank-to-bank contacts between the two countries, business sources disclosed today.

Cardinals Hammer Pirates, 15-4

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Torre had never done it before. Mike Schmidt had...just nine days earlier.

What 13-year major league veteran Torre did Wednesday night was hit for the cycle—single, double, triple and home run—as the St. Louis Cardinals pounded out 22 hits and blasted Pittsburgh 15-4, pushing the beleaguered Pirates back into the National League East cellar.

What Philadelphia rookie Schmidt did was repeat his act of June 19 when, just like Wednesday, he followed an intentional walk to Tommy Hutton with a grand slam home run against New York. Along with a solo shot an inning earlier, it powered the Phillies to a 7-1 victory over the Mets and a doubleheader split as left-hander Mike Wallace made his major league debut and scattered seven hits.

The Mets scored seven runs in the first inning of the opener and held on for a 7-6 triumph.

The Chicago Cubs continued to run away with the National League's East Division, beating the Montreal Expos 6-1. The second game of the twin bill was halted by darkness after 12 innings tied at 3-all and was to be completed before today's regularly scheduled contest. Elsewhere, the Houston Astros whipped the Cincinnati Reds 10-2 and the San Francisco Giants edged the Atlanta Braves 6-5. Los Angeles and San Diego were not scheduled.

Ron Santo rapped out three hits, drove in four runs and scored two to lead the Cubs to victory in their opener against Montreal. Then, Santo's ninth homer of the year tied the nightcap in the bottom of the ninth and sent it into overtime. Bob Bailey and Ken Singleton homered for the Expos, Pat Bourque for the Cubs.

Two-run doubles by Doug Rader and Skip Jutze highlighted a five-run rally in the sixth inning that helped the Astros whip the Reds. Jerry Reuss pitched an eight-hitter for his 10th victory and drove in the first run of the game with a fifth-inning single, the first hit off Fred Norman.

Dave Rader drove in three runs with a pair of homers and a double and the Giants rallied for three runs in the sixth inning to down the Braves and snap a four-game losing streak.

Garry Maddox' triple and singles by Ed Goodson and Gary Matthews chased Adrian Devine, making his major league debut, in the sixth. Chris Speier's run-scoring single and Rader's RBI double completed the rally against Danny Frisella. Ralph Garr and Mike Lum homered for Atlanta.

Clyde, Rangers Top Twins

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas pumped a little homegrown excitement into its ballpark Wednesday night, unveiling David Clyde, their fireballing 18-year-old No. 1 draft choice, against the Minnesota Twins.

The Rangers came away from the young left-hander's debut with a 4-3 victory and, perhaps more important, something for a record crowd of 35,698 to talk about.

The fans cheered every move the teen-ager made and immediately replaced in the club's cashbox the estimated $125,000 bonus the Rangers paid the young man earlier this month.

Manager Whitey Herzog limited Clyde to five innings. The young pitcher struck out eight, walked seven and surrendered only rookie Mike Adams' two-run homer. Then Bill Gogolewski took over, limiting the Twins to just three more hits and saving the victory for the teen-ager who was pitching high school ball in Houston just a couple of weeks ago.

Hot-hitting Paul Blair stroked a home run and a double, leading Baltimore past New York and moving the Orioles to within two games of the East Division-leading Yankees.

Blair drilled his fourth homer of the year in the first inning and doubled home another run in the third. Since May 29, the Oriole outfielder has had 40 hits in 92 at bats.

Detroit came from behind twice to sweep both ends of its doubleheader against Milwaukee, ending an eight-game road winning streak for the Brewers.

Dick McAuliffe's two-out bases-loaded home run in the eighth inning turned the opener around and then Aurelio Rodriguez' leadoff homer touched off a five-run fifth inning rally that gave the Tigers the nightcap.

Circleville Piranhas Cop Awards In Delaware Meet

The Circleville Piranha Swim Team made a fine showing in the Fourteenth Annual Delaware Invitational swim meet. The Piranhas captured a total of 65 awards.

Steve Penn paced the team with four first place awards. Circleville's Captain Dave Resler was awarded special acknowledgement as the top sportsman in the meet.

Artificial Turf Said No Villain

NEW YORK (AP) — Artificial turf may not be all it's cracked up to be—but it's not the villain that the National Football League Players Association says it is.

The NFLPA asked Commissioner Pete Rozelle last weekend for a moratorium on the installation of artificial turf, contending that it may be the cause of increased and more severe injuries.

See No Drug Abuse Worry With NBA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Commissioner Walter Kennedy of the National Basketball Association says the league has no drug abuse problem and would intervene if a team tries to "whitewash" a violation.

Kennedy submitted a report on drugs to the NBA Board of Governors that opened a three-day meeting Wednesday at the Beverly Hills Hotel. The report carried no recommendation and, Kennedy said, brought no noteworthy response from club officials and owners.

"Actually," the commissioner said, "the drug abuse program we have now is an ongoing one. We will enlarge on it to some degree. In what direction, I don't know."

Should a problem with drugs develop, Kennedy said, "Our office would be involved from the start. I don't think there'll ever be a whitewash."

Based on two meetings with Rep. Harley O. Staggers of West Virginia, chairman of a special House subcommittee probing alleged use of drugs in professional sports, Kennedy told club owners that the league already had met "several" of Staggers' request, which were made to all pro sports. He said he pledged to Staggers the cooperation of the league and its players.

But he said neither the owners nor the players have stated a position on Staggers' proposed urinalysis program to detect drug usage during the season and periodically during the off-season.

PBA Adds Tourney To Year's Schedule

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The Professional Bowlers Association has added a new tournament to its schedule—the $37,500 AMF-PBA Regional Champions Classic at Clearwater, Fla., Oct. 12-15.

Only winners of PBA regional tournaments will be eligible for the Clearwater tourney, and the winner will be eligible for the $125,000 Firestone Tournament of Champions in Akron.

But on Wednesday, Rozelle said there won't be any moratorium and released a study by the Stanford Research Institute which says that, when it comes to causing major injuries, there's no difference between artificial turf and the real thing.

But the lack of a constantly cleared "buffer zone" along the sidelines, the lack of proper warmup time after halftime and the improper use of equipment came in for some blame and the NFL is taking steps to correct those problems, Rozelle said at the league's annual owners meeting, expected to wind up early today.

There was no immediate comment on the study from Ed Garvey, executive director of the NFLPA, who said he received it about the same time it was released Wednesday.

Teams will have a few more minutes beyond the usual 15-minute halftime break for more extensive warmups, Rozelle said. And each team will be subject to fines if it fails to keep its buffer zone clear of all its own personnel and players and anyone else along its sideline.

Quarterbacks and running backs—the men who usually carry the ball—are subject to greater injuries than the men in "the pit," the linemen, said the study, which noted that linemen are capable of playing with more injuries than the ball-handlers.

Cincinnati Bengals Sign Wayne Estabrook

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— The Cincinnati Bengals signed their No. 17 draft choice Wednesday, a rookie who faces the challenge of beating out the club's top three quarterback candidates.

Wayne Estabrook, a 6-foot-1, 195-pound standout at Whittier College in California, will join the Bengals training camp next month in Wilmington, Ohio. He joins veteran quarterbacks Ken Anderson, Virgil Carter and Greg Cook in trying for a position on the team.

Scioto Downs Can-Am Race Slated Tonight

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The rain-plagued Canadian-American Pacing Series apparently will have nice weather for its $50,300 final tonight at Scioto Downs.

Five of the eight qualifiers were raced in the rain, but the U.S. Weather Service here sees little chance of showers for the windup.

The New York Mets opened the season with four rookies — pitcher Harry Parker, first baseman John Milner and out-fielders George Theodore and Rich Chiles.

Crampton Next Golfing Millionaire?

CHICAGO (AP) — Bruce Crampton is an even-money bet to pass the million dollar mark in career earnings this week in the $175,000 Western Open Golf Tournament.

It's something he'd very much like to do — join Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Billy Casper and Lee Trevino as the game's only official millionaires. The sturdy Australian veteran would be the first foreigner to hit that figure.

"The money is important, and the titles. Don't let anyone tell you that it isn't," Crampton said before teeing off today in the first round on the 6,654-yard, par-71 Midlothian Country Club course.

"But it's at least as important, from a personal standpoint, to know that you've competed so successfully over here." In example, he pointed to the $32,000 first prize he won last week when he made the American Golf Classic his fourth victory of the year.

His fourth victory of the year last week in the American Golf Classic, and its $32,000 first prize, boosted him into the season's leading money-winning spot with $204,209. He's the first foreign player to hit $200,000 for a season.

And he now has $995,652 for his career—just $4,348 short of becoming the game's fifth million dollar winner.

He could finish as low as 10th in this tournament and make it.

Since he's finished ninth or better in exactly half his starts this season—10 of 20—he figures to be an even money bet to make it before heading for Scotland and the British Open.

Athlete, 71, Makes Mark In Track

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — With hair whitened by the years, a lined face weathered by the Oklahoma sun and steely eyes which have seen many lands, Ralph Higgins looks like a veteran Army field commander.

In fact, he is.

Higgins is the former Oklahoma A&M track star and coach who today is the parttime head coach of the U.S. Army track team. He has never left the sport he coaches as an athlete, however, and at age 71 says he's going after the world records in eight or nine events. "I was really going after that record," said the current rage of the Medicare set after last weekend's Senior Olympics at UCLA.

"Which record?" asked a reporter. "Why, all of 'em. And you know something? I didn't even work out for that meet. I was just too busy this year, preparing my team."

Higgins entered nine events in the meet, won eight of them and set four "world" records for age-71 athletes.

He won the 100 in 15.3 seconds, the 110-meter hurdles in 22.7, the javelin at 88 feet 7 inches, the shot at 32-1, the long jump at 12-3, the discus at 97-6, the triple jump at 25-11 and the 200 at 36.7.

Plan Camera Use To Spot Grease Ball

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Gaylord Perry, be forewarned, Big Brother is watching you.

The New York Yankees have announced a plan to operate a special TV camera for Friday night's game against the Cleveland Indians in Yankee Stadium to determine whether Perry throws a grease ball.

In Monday night's game Yankee centerfielder Bobby Murcer, Manager Ralph Houk and coach Dick Howser got in a heated argument with plate umpire Lou DiMuro about whether Perry was putting a foreign substance on the ball.

Astros Shatter Reds

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Astros had Cincinnati seeing double Wednesday night in a 10-2 rout of the defending National League champion Reds.

The Astros scored six runs on doubles by Skip Jutze, Tommie Agee and Doug Rader to start a new winning streak. The Reds had whipped the Astros 5-1 Tuesday, snapping a four-game winning streak.

Jutze's batterymate Jerry Reuss went the distance for Houston, picking up his 10th victory against five losses.

Reuss broke up a scoreless game with a run-scoring single off loser Fred Norman in the fifth before the Reds took a 2-1 lead in the sixth on RBI singles by Dan Driessen and Dave Concepcion.

Then the Astros cracked back with two of their doubles in the sixth. Rader

Pit Stops To Determine Race Victory

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (AP) — How would you like to start out on a 500 mile journey, knowing your car would give you only about 60 miles on a 40 gallon tank of fuel?

You'd probably stay home.

Thirty-three drivers will start the Schaefer 500 Mile Championship Auto Race Sunday in cars that are limited to 40 gallons in their tanks, 300 more in reserve tanks in their pits, and with an engine that at best gets only about 1.8 miles to the gallon.

"You're going to see the darndest procession of gas stops in the history of racing," predicted 42-year-old Roger McCluskey of Tucson, Ariz. "It'll look like a line of cars backed up on the freeway trying to get to the only gas station open on Sunday."

He added, "If I were a fan I'd pay the top admission price for a seat along pit road. That's where the action is going to be, and that's where the race will be won or lost." McCluskey starts the $374,650 Schaefer from 16th position. He says his Lindsay Hopkins-owned McLaren gets no more than two miles per gallon of fuel "even under the best conditions."

The 33 starters for the No.2 race in the United States Auto Club's "Triple Crown" of 500 milers were given a four-hour session on the 2½ mile Pocono International Raceway Wednesday afternoon to check fuel consumption and tire wear. It was the last time they'll be allowed on the course until the cars are rolled out for Sunday's 1 p.m. EDT start.

started it with a two-run clout, Jutze added his two-bagger for two more runs and Reuss drove in another score with a sacrifice fly.

Sacrifice flies by Bob Watson and Lee May produced two more Houston runs in the seventh and Agge's double and a single by Roger Metzger in the eighth completed Houston's runaway.

ABA Studies No Limit On Fouls

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The American Basketball Association is tinkering with the rule book again.

The ABA, which introduced the three-point field goal and the red, white and blue ball, said Wednesday it will try out a rule allowing players to stay in the game no matter how many fouls they commit.

The rule was tentatively approved by the league's 10 club owners, who also voted at their annual meeting to approve conditionally the sale of the Memphis Tams to a Providence, R.I., group. To complete the sale, road construction executive Paul Lynch would have to produce the needed money and a firm lease on the Providence Civic Center by July 9.

The no-foul-out rule will be used in preseason games, including one "controlled" game for each team in which coaches will use only seven or eight players, as in a regular-season game. League officials will then decide whether to apply it in the regular season.

League owners adopted several other rules on a trial basis. One set of proposals would follow the National Basketball Association's lead and reduce the penalty foul limit from six to five in a quarter.

Among other changes is one to allow only the coach, not the players, to protest an official's call on the floor. The meeting winds up today.

Jutze was more eager to talk about Reuss' pitching than his two-run hit. "I caught Rick Wise when Jutze was with St. Louis and there's no comparison between the way Jerry throws and Wise," Jutze said. "All I know is Jerry throws harder than anybody I've ever caught. And his control has been very good."

"The score tonight was enough to tell you Jerry was pitching. He had good control, good velocity and well ... just good everything."

"A few of us got off to a slow start this year," Rader said of Houston's up-and-down hitting. "We had injuries, and sometimes it takes awhile to get going. That's why you play 162 games. We've got three months to go."

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Doesn't Want To Apply

DEAR ABBY: Cindee and I want to get married, but we have one small problem. Her father. He wants to be sure I will be a good provider. He is the personnel manager of a large company and he says before he decides, I will have to submit three letters of recommendation.

I know this sounds silly, but he is serious. I don't think getting married should be like applying for a job.

I feel certain I can support a wife but I don't think I should have to dig up any references. What should I do?

APPLICANT IN SEATTLE

DEAR APPLICANT: Would Cindee's father have submitted to such mumbo-jumbo to win her mother? After all, you're not marrying Boeing Aircraft. If you want Cindee and Cindee wants you (and you're old enough), tell her dad you'll do your best to support his daughter but the letters of recommendation are out.

DEAR ABBY: Several months ago I was seriously injured in an accident. While still in the hospital and in such shape I was wondering whether I'd pull through, I received flowers from the owners of a local funeral home! I can't tell you how this depressed me.

A few days later, these two morticians and their wives came to the hospital to visit me. I knew these people only slightly and had never socialized with them.

I think trying to drum up business this way is in very poor taste. I can't imagine what other reason they would have for sending flowers and visiting me.

How do you feel about morticians hustling prospective customers this way?

ANGRY

DEAR ANGRY: Such huck-sterism would annoy the Funeral Directors Association more than it depressed you. For your convenience, their address is 135 W. Wells St., Milwaukee, Wisc. 53203. The ethical morticians would appreciate it if you'd report these deeds.

DEAR ABBY: About two years ago I met an accountant in a bowling alley. Every night we'd have a few beers together and we became good friends. One night my friend told me his sister had invested in some stocks and had a very good weekly financially. Since I was going to make a deposit in the bank the next day, I suggested to my friend that I would give him $1,000 instead to invest in the stock market.

The next day I gave him $1,000, in cash, in my car (no witnesses), and since we were friends I didn't ask for a receipt or anything.

We agreed that we would split the profit from the stock 50-50-half for him because he was an accountant and knew about stocks, and half for me because it was my money.

Then I started to work nights and couldn't bowl, but I kept in touch with him by phone. After a year and a half, the stock remained the same, so I told him to sell it and return my money.

You guessed it. I was stuck! He said I couldn't prove anything as I had no receipt.

I went to three lawyers and they all told me to chalk it up to experience.

Can you help me get my money back? STUCK IN AMSTERDAM

DEAR STUCK: If three lawyers told you the same thing, you had better believe it. It seems a pity that you have to suffer such a grave injustice, but without some proof of the transaction you are indeed stuck.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WORRIED BECAUSE I AM ALLERGIC TO PENICILLIN": See a doctor an once. There are other ways to treat what you suspect you have.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBEY: Box No. 69700, La. Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Electric Auto Stirs Man's Pride

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Lately, the last thing Leland Bunch checks before leaving his garage is whether his car has been plugged in.

Bunch, a Huntington businessman, owns the only electric automobile in town and is enjoying his distinction. "Sure, I enjoy the looks I get driving to work...people don't know quite what to make of it," he said. Bunch has enjoyed too his car's exposure in the local news media and lecturing about its workings to friends and neighbors. But that's not why he bought it.

"I just think it's the thing of the future," he said. "We're hearing so much about our pollution problems... this seems to be a good alternative to the gasoline engine for driving around town."

Bunch has not parted company with his Cadillac. The electric car, a product of an Augusta, Ga. firm, can obtain a top speed of only 30 miles an hour and remains unfeasible for highway driving.

"Around town, I have no trouble staying up with the flow of traffic," Bunch said. "The car will travel 50 miles on one charging so I can travel back and forth to work (a distance of three miles one way) several times."

The two-passenger cousin of the golf cart can be recharged overnight when Bunch plugs his series of six-volt batteries into an 110 volt household current.

"The charger has an automatic timer so there's no problem in over-charging her," he said.

"It is the batteries that supply power to the car's two horsepower motor which turns the driveshaft."

"It's as smooth as sitting in a chair,"

Bunch said. "There are no vibrations or noise unless you hit a brick street," he said.

Bunch is satisfied with his $2,000 investment and predicts that the electric car will grow in general acceptance.

"There was a delivery being made to Beckley the same time I got my car," he said. "So I'm not the only man in West Virginia to own one."

"Some day, it will be the car America's driving. You'll be able to pull into a service station and instead of gassing up just exchange batteries," he said.

Lowe's...Your Household Word!

Last year's "Household Words" were ecology, consumerism, and Agnew. But 1973 has its own set of words like boycott, Phase III, and women's lib. And Lowe's is the word when it comes to your household, simply because Lowe's sticks to the philosophy that no business can grow—or even exist—without satisfied customers. So, we keep on trying to find better ways to serve you...to offer you quality brand name merchandise at lower prices. We've found a few computerized invoicing, our Homestead package home system, bank credit cards and extra-quick checkout counters. But, we're still working on even more: easy to use "Lowe's-It-Yourself" items, new remodeling techniques and products, new home building components.

As you've guessed, we not only want Lowe's to be your "Household Word", we want to deserve the title. We want you to know—firsthand—about "Lowe's Low Prices." "Personal Service for Customers", and what it means to be "Brand Name Retailer of the Year". All these phrases combine to help Lowe's help you with shopping for the home. And that's why, even though many things change from year to year—Lowe's remains your "Household Word".

SAVAGE BEAUTY — Lightning lights up the sky over the State Capitol dome in Springfield, Ill., during an electrical storm that brought high winds and heavy rains throughout the state.

Uruguay In Grip Of Dictatorship

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — Uruguay, once the showpiece of democracy in Latin America, is back in the grip of dictatorial rule shared by President Juan M. Bordaberry and his military overseers.

Six months of bitter quarrelling ended Wednesday when Bordaberry dissolved Congress and announced a new Council of State will assume legislative powers.

Soldiers and tanks sealed off the Parliamentary Palace for the first time since 1933 and patrolled Montevideo streets, which were deserted because of a 24-hour protest strike.

New Storms Cover Wide Areas Of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms rumbled across the eastern half of the nation and parts of the Plains early today. The heaviest rains drenched the Tennessee Valley.

Thunderstorms burst over the mountains of Colorado and pushed into the plains of Kansas and Nebraska. Scattered thundershowers also broke out over the Rockies and central intermountain region.

Heavy fog, rain and drizzle persisted along the northern Atlantic coast. Heavy fog also was scattered along the West Coast.

Late Wednesday evening hail three-quarters of an inch thick peppered Maxine, Ala., northwest of Birmingham.

A tornado was sighted in lower Michigan, 70 miles northwest of Detroit, and another touched down in western Kansas. Some trees and power lines were broken and some roofs damaged, but there were no reports of serious injuries.

No violence was reported, but a dozen opposition congressmen were believed to have fled the country to avoid military arrest. Severe censorship was imposed, barring any criticism of Bordaberry's move, and two cabinet members resigned in disapproval.

Bordaberry went on national television Wednesday night and blamed subversion by the Marxist Tupamaro guerrillas and congressional "obstruction" as the reasons for his decision.

The ultimate act that brought about the collapse of democracy was insistence by the armed forces that congressional immunity be lifted from leftist Sen. Enrique Erro so that he could be tried by a military court. Erro was accused of being a "civil chieftain" of the Tupamaros, a charge he repeatedly has denied.

A warrant was issued for Erro's arrest shortly after Congress was abolished, but the senator was in Buenos Aires for a lecture series.

Bordaberry, a conservative rancher installed for a four-year term in March 1972, said the still-unnamed Council of State will prepare constitutional reforms to be submitted to a national vote.

The armed forces gained control over Bordaberry's administration in February when they forced the president to fire his defense minister and create the military-dominated National Security Council.

Since then, the generals have applied pressure on Congress, demanding apologies for any criticism of the armed forces and insisting that Erro be removed from the Senate and turned over to the military courts.

With the generals in virtual control of the government, Uruguay's armed forces have come full circle from their position 10 years ago, when the military was a small, nonpolitical, professionally manned defense force.

POW Suicide Linked To Charges?

COMMERCE CITY, Colo. (AP) — An hour before he shot himself to death, a former prisoner of war charged with collaborating with the enemy in Vietnam told a doctor he feared the military would find some excuse to keep him in the service.

Marine Sgt. Abel Larry Kavanaugh died on Wednesday of one bullet in the head from a .25-caliber handgun, Adams County District Atty. Floyd Marks said.

"From the evidence we have now, it would appear that it was a suicide," Marks said. The bullet entered the left temple, police said.

Police Sgt. Jack Baldwin said,

"We're officially calling it a self-inflicted wound. At this point, we don't know if it was accidental, but I would strongly doubt it."

Kavanaugh, 24, was the second former POW to die since returning from captivity. Air Force Capt. Edward Allen Brudno died of an overdose of barbiturates on June 3 in Harrison, N.Y.

Dr. John W. Bolin, a general practitioner in nearby Aurora, said he completed a physical examination of Kavanaugh about an hour before the young Marine shot himself at the home of his father-in-law in this Denver suburb.

"I found he was in absolutely perfect physical condition, but he said he was afraid the military would make something up and find an excuse to hold him in the service," Bolin said.

"He was very quiet and seemed depressed and very anxious," Bolin said. "When I asked what was wrong, he said he had been a POW but didn't go any further, saying it was a military matter."

Kavanaugh, here on a 60-day convalescent leave, was one of eight former POWs charged with aiding and conspiring with the enemy at a prison compound called the Plantation, near Hanoi.

Col. Theodore W. Guy, of Tucson, Ariz., the ranking U.S. officer in the POW compound, filed the charges. The secretary of the Navy is considering the charges to determine whether a formal inquiry which could lead to court-martial should be ordered.

Although the family was secluded, friends said the young sergeant had been reticent about discussing his case or POW experience.

Kavanaugh was captured April 2, 1968, while on patrol in South Vietnam and was listed as missing in action for 3½ years before his family learned he was a prisoner.

The charges filed by Guy against Kavanaugh included disrespect toward an officer, disobedience to an order, communicating and corresponding with the enemy, conspiracy to impair loyalty, insubordination and counseling of the enemy.

Violence Continues To Mar Election In Northern Ireland

BELFAST (AP) — Northern Ireland's voters choose a provincial assembly today amid a wave of guerrilla violence and political back-biting.

In filling 78 assembly seats, the one million voters have a choice of 210 candidates bearing 19 different party labels. Essentially, the fight is for leadership of the province's Protestant majority.

The new assembly is intended by its British designers to ease the feuding between Protestants and Roman Catholics which over the past four years has cost more than 800 lives and untold damage in bombing and riots.

The pro-British Unionist party, the dominant power here for half a century, has lost some support to the moderate center and a lot to hard-line militancy.

Find Kidney Treatment Effective

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Medical centers in Kentucky, Indiana, Kansas and Cleveland are studying a childhood kidney disease treatment to learn whether it is as effective for many as it has been for a few.

The disease is nephrosis, which affects the part of the kidney that filters the blood. It causes fluid to accumulate in body tissues.

The treatment is a combination of a new drug (chlorambucil) used in fighting cancer of the lymph system, and another (prednisone) already being used against nephrosis.

The combination, developed at University Hospitals here, has caused the disease to completely disappear in 23 patients to whom it has been given for almost six years.

The tests have been run by the developer of the treatment, Dr. Warren Grupe, director of pediatric nephrology at University Hospitals and a teacher at Case Western Reserve University.

"The addition of chlorambucil seems to have turned off the disease completely," Grupe said.

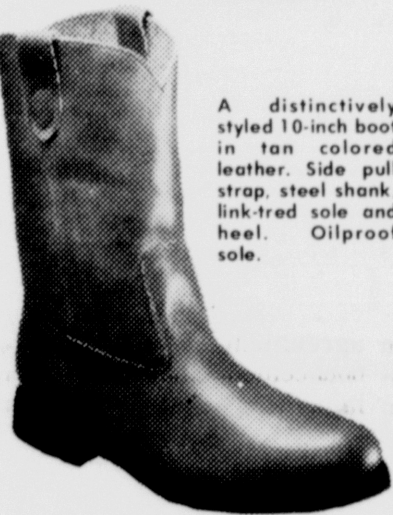

The expanded study is being made at the center here and in medical centers at the University of Kansas, University of Kentucky and Indiana University.

Before the development of prednisone in the mid-1950s about a third of those stricken by the disease died, a third suffered continuing kidney disease and about a third recovered completely, Grupe said.

CARROLL RICHTER'S HOROSCOPE

from the Carroll Richter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You are tied down to finishing an activity that has become a tiresome chore, but it is necessary you do this before you can go on to new opportunities. The time is right to make long-range plans while finishing present duties.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Make sure you follow through with a promise made to a friend or there could be trouble later on. A meeting with another may be delayed but take it in stride. Do something constructive.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) There are delays in pushing through with a project you have in mind, so keep rooted in other work you have to do and make this a productive day. Assist a friend who is in trouble.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Get out from under all those demands others are making on you and engage in new outlets that are more interesting and profitable. Evening is fine for attending favorite amusement.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Put a new plan in operation that will be profitable far into the future, after you have discussed it with an expert. You have fine ideas now. Make a note of them for future use.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) A friend may be disappointing but only because of circumstances beyond your control. Use your own ingenuity and you will gain your objective. Learn to depend on yourself more.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Make sure you don't run off on a tangent instead of doing important work that awaits your attention and which must be done now. Listen to what a higher-up has to suggest.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You have a new plan in mind which is good but requires more work on it before it can be a success. A new contact has fine ideas which could help you to advance. Listen carefully.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Smile even though conditions around you may appear depressing. Attend to your own affairs and all turns out fine. Show more true devotion to loved one. Avoid one who criticizes.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) An associate wants you to do your fair share of work. You should do so or there could be trouble. Do what is expected of you, especially with the public. Keep temper under control.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have to persevere if you are to finish all that work ahead of you and be rid of pesky problems. Take health treatments you need during spare time. Avoid strenuous exercise.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You want to have fun, which is fine provided you don't go overboard. Stay within your budget. A fine talent you have could easily be put to good use and bring added income.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Stop feeling imposed upon by kin and do your utmost to be of greater help at home. Postpone entertainment at home until a better time. Study business reports and make sure they are correct.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be one of those ingenious young people who is determined to get ahead, even before proper preparation. Teach to use the mind along specialized lines with order and system, then this can become a successful chart, especially if time is planned for recreation. A fine family person here, with much love in the nature. Give chance to choose own religion.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — that much-heralded agreement and announcement that CBS was launching into serious drama. The launch formally occurred Feb. 2, when CBS broadcast the Shakespeare Festival's TV version of its "Much Ado About Nothing," another Festival production, which on Broadway had received wide critical acclaim.

Despite continued acclaim for the TV model, the Bard proved a bomb in terms of TV ratings. It was seen in an estimated million homes, whereas "All in the Family" appeared in 22.4 million that week.

The network said it had decided against airing it then because it might prove "unnecessarily abrasive" to millions of Americans if shown at a time when their emotions were dominated by the sight of U.S. prisoners of war returning from Southeast Asia.

It said it would show the program later, but as of Tuesday the network said no date had been decided on. Right after the postponement, Papp declared, "I will not have any relationship with a cowardly network ... because it defeats the spirit of our contract, which was to do both classics and contemporary work."

The non-renewal of Papp's option hadn't been publicly announced by CBS, although CBS confirmed Papp's report when asked about it.

CBS declined to comment on the reasons for its action. Papp was surprisingly mild about CBS' decision. He said he felt it meant CBS officials "have stepped away from

Jewish Pioneers Prison Emphasis Is Live In Desert On Learning Skills

HATZEVA, Israel (AP) —

Like a lost tribe of the Old Testament, a little band of pioneer Jews led by a former court reporter from Miami has been living in the sun-seared Negev Desert for six years, defying Israeli authorities and trying to build a colony in the wilderness.

"Nobody would accept us when we came to Israel — they said that because we were Americans we could never take the primitive life in a frontier kibbutz," said Mrs. Judy Perlmutter, 37, once from New York but now an Israeli citizen.

"We set up our tents in the desert, we built houses and we dug wells, and we have survived since 1966," said the brunette housewife.

Some Israelis call them "the stubborn ones."

At first, Simha-Sandy-Perlmutter, the group's 39-year-old leader who left Florida to settle in the promised land, hoped to bring 300 American Jews to Israel. But the grand plan hasn't developed.

Only 17 pioneers now live in abandoned army houses near the Jordan frontier south of the Dead Sea. All the adults but one, a German, are from the United States and Canada, and eight are children, five of them born in Israel.

More than half of them are Perlmutter's own family. He has two wives. One is Judy, with three children. The other is Jan, a 35-year-old Indianapolis woman who came with the first settlers, married Perlmutter here and gave him four more offspring.

"Having two wives in Israel is no problem," said Judy. "The Israelis don't talk about it, but others have several."

At first, the colony encountered illness, drought, police arrests and then the 1967 Mideast war, when the Israeli army sent eight soldiers to protect them.

Now things are looking brighter and the desert residents are almost ready to fulfill their purpose — to farm in the promised land.

One reason for the delay and the troubles was that the desert dwellers do not follow all the tents of the orthodox Jewish faith. They are Messianic Jews, who believe in Jesus Christ as the Messiah. And their settlement in the Negev, they believe, will hasten the coming of a new Messiah.

Israeli officials who disagree with the Messianic belief refused to give them resident visas. The Perlmutter's renounced their American status and eventually won Israeli citizenship.

Authorities refused to give them land or water, and the settlers were arrested when they protested. Now the court has ruled on the settlers' side.

Meanwhile, the men in the group have found jobs, and the Israeli army invited them to move out of their first primitive settlement into the abandoned military camp.

For miles around, there is nothing but sand, rock hills and eerie emptiness.

"But we are getting along fine," said Judy. "We built a school and the army gave us a girl sergeant as a teacher. There are five pupils, each one in a different class."

"The army also gives us electricity. Once a week we drive to Eilat, an hour away on the Red Sea, to buy food. We freeze everything."

"The whole reason for our coming to Israel was that it is written in the Torah that all Jews must return. Even in the United States, my husband believed that redemption would come from the desert."

"Do we miss the United States? Well, occasionally we'd like a good steak or some Chinese food. We sit around at night and talk about it."

"But what I would really like is a few thousand dollars and one day in an American department store."

Egypt To Control Birth Rate

CAIRO (AP) — Unless mothers listen more to family planning experts, and less to traditional midwives, Egypt's population will double within the next 27 years, Dr. Aisha Rateb, Minister of Social Affairs, warned recently.

Surrounded by desert, 99 per cent of Egypt's 36 million inhabitants live in the fertile Nile valley. Some 24,000 kilometers of canals and 13,000 kilometers of drains extend the country's agricultural capacity, but it still relies on imported food to survive.

The population increased by one million in the last 12 months.

Low economic standards in rural communities and "archaic notions and traditions" are detrimental to family planning efforts, she says.

Egypt's 20,000 midwives, who earn roughly $11.5 in food and clothing rather than cash, for each delivery, are a major stumbling block to family planners, she adds.

The government is trying to train the midwives, giving them "the prestige of government officials," and a salary of $11.5 month, which the Ministry of Social Affairs admits is not enough.

Nor is there enough money to give all the midwives that salary, even if they wanted to accept it, the ministry says.

"It is in their interest to deliver many children, so they advise women against using contraceptives, claiming they have harmful side effects. They also criticize doctors and nurses working in local government clinics, saying they are charlatans," says Dr. Saad Gadalla, a social researcher.

Midwives in rural areas, who inherit their clients' families from their own mothers, are rarely fully medically qualified or

BILLERICA, Mass. (AP) —

A 42-year-old county jailhouse in a suburb north of Boston is the nation's most progressive prison, its sheriff says, a place where young inmates are rewarded for learning talents that will keep them from coming back.

In the red-brick Billerica House of Correction and Jail, prisoners who take vocational courses and behave are given what they want most — freedom.

The privileges range from private meetings with girlfriends in the sheriff's office to week-long trips home to see their families and look for jobs. And the inmates who do the best get the most.

The prison really isn't a prison at all, says Sheriff John J. Buckley. It's more like a hospital.

"What we've done is bring about radical change without crisis. I consider myself as much of a revolutionary as a man with a beard and a sign," said Buckley, 43, a short, balding man with glasses.

Two years ago, Buckley became the Republican sheriff of Democratic Middlesex County. He said he wanted to make the county prison something more than a stopover for young offenders on their way to becoming professional criminals. Instead, it should convince them to do something else for a living.

Doing this, he says, means treating convicts as humans. And it means spending money — lots of it. Currently,

Buckley says, his prison is spending $10,000 a year on each inmate — $2,000 more than is spent per inmate at the state's maximum security prison.

Much of the money comes from a host of federal grants, but Buckley says the prison system is "pricing itself out of business" and he sees the day when county jails will close because of the cost factor.

When Buckley arrived, Billerica's rehabilitation program consisted of a broom factory, a dairy farm, a herd of pigs and a vegetable garden. Only the garden remains.

In their place are shops where prisoners learn drafting, television repair, auto mechanics, home wiring and small engine work. There are courses in art, music, reading and math. Some earn

Festival Of Music

Announced

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — The Santa Fe Chamber Music Festival will begin this summer, with six concerts here and seven in other places.

One purpose is to bring music to areas where classical music is seldom played.

A July 6 concert in front of Window Rock, on the Navajo Reservation, is being sponsored by the Navajo Tribal Museum to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Navajo Tribal Council.

Artist Georgia O'Keeffe will attend the first concert June 24, at the Museum of New Mexico in Santa Fe, which will be dedicated to Pablo Casals, honorary president of the festival. Miss O'Keeffe is allowing a reproduction of her painting, "Music in Pink and Blue" 1919" to be used on the cover of the programs.

Other cities where concerts will be held include Chimayo, Albuquerque and Los Alamos.

registered, but they have a birth to death relationship with their clients.

They deliver the children, circumcise them, doctor them, act as matchmakers, perform abortions, vouch for the virginity of new brides and prepare the bodies of women for burial.

"The rural population is too simple minded. Mothers listen to the advice of midwives because they are old family friends," says Gadalla.

In addition to rural family planning units, there are 417 centers in the more populated areas and Egypt spends some $2 million annually in family planning activities, plus aid from the Ford Foundation and U. N. agencies. Mrs. Aziza Hussein, who operates a family planning project, says midwives hold the key, but she doesn't know how to win them over, adding "we must find a way."

high school diplomas.

"The emphasis before was custody," Buckley said, "Now it's rehabilitation."

Ashville Art Exhibit Open To All Age Groups

A traditional part of the Ashville festival, the art show, will be displayed throughout the festivities at the Ashville grade school auditorium, Walnut St.

Entries may be made in the following classes:

Class A — Grades 1-4, all mediums accepted

Class B — Grades 5-8, all mediums accepted

Class C — Grades 9-12, all mediums accepted

Class D — Adult, ages 18 years and older

Class D will be divided in categories for oil or acrylic, water color,

God And Country Theme Of Walk To Sunday School

The First Church of Christ in Christian Union, 436 E. Ohio St., is sponsoring a walk to Sunday School, July 1. The walk will begin at 9 a.m.

There will be four areas with the Sunday School supervisors assigned to enlist those that live in the areas to walk with them to the morning services.

Starting points and group leaders are: Roys Service Station, Route 56 and Kingston Pike, led by Ellen Holbrook and Robert Reeser; Franklin and Mingo Sts., led by Tim Bost and Willard Peters; Mound and Pickaway Sts., led by Phil and Linda Grisso; Pickaway and Walnut Sts., led by Sue Knece and Jerry Parish.

Each group will be met by persons carrying an American flag, Christian flag and a Bible. An invitation is extended to all to join in and thereby express their appreciation and respect for civil and religious freedom.

Morocco leather is made from goatskins.

Cincy Stadium Now Political Issue

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The collapse of a multi-million dollar enterprise to build a coliseum in Cincinnati has emerged as a political issue reaching all the way to the Ohio governor's mansion.

Five local banks ended negotiations last week with Cincinnati Sports Inc. for financing an $18 million, 17,000-seat professional hockey-basketball-tennis arena downtown.

CSI, made up of some of the city's premier industrial families, blasted the Charterite-Democrat majority on Cincinnati City Council and Ohio Gov. John J. Gilligan for "not showing more leadership."

Several Republican councilmen jumped on the issue as a chance to regain the control of the city they had had for 14 years.

Councilman Ralph Kohnen, a Republican "sensing" the impending collapse, called June 13 for a bond issue to finance the stadium. The next day, the banks said they were stepping out.

Giles DeCoursey III, a freshman GOP candidate, announced he would base his campaign on the issue, saying Republicans, who build Riverfront Stadium, "are the only ones who have proved their leadership in accomplishing" large development programs.

The collapse has also thrown a $70 million Riverfront development into confusion and City Manager E. Robert Turner said fast changes in plans must be made to justify current applications for federal funds.

CSI executives said that former Gov. James A. Rhodes and former Mayor Eugene Ruehlmann showed the ability and fortitude to push through and complete the stadium in 1970. It never came to a vote of the people.

The Independent Charters and

Democrats, who ousted the Republican leadership of Cincinnati two years ago, are all up for election this fall.

Steadfastly, the coalition has said throughout that no public funds could be used to finance the proposed arena adjacent to the stadium.

Councilman Thomas Luken, who split the mayoralty with Mayor Theodore M. Berry during the two-year term, had worked hard to push the project. The nine-member City Council selects the mayor and vice mayor from its own ranks.

Luken said he still is optimistic that the arena will be built. He said he couldn't believe it when CSI was unable to come to an agreement with the banks — "they were only a measly million or so apart."

Berry and Luken and the other members of the coalition refuted the Republican charges.

"We had a plan," said Luken. There were problems and we worked them all out. After all, the city went into a lot of debt for that stadium.

"Now it's the business community's turn. What is needed is some civic-minded money to make money. The arena would be a winner."

Luken said he also resented the reference to Rhodes' help on the stadium.

"Gov. John J. Gilligan arranged for up to $15 million in state revenue bonds to finance the arena and he reallocated $2 million more to build ramps, walkways and roads for the development. That's a lot more than Jim Rhodes did," he added, saying that talk was cheap. Rhodes is hoping to run against Gilligan this fall.

But the CSI collapse has lost professional basketball, hockey and tennis for Cincinnati in the foreseeable future.

"This leaves Cincinnati," said CSI President Brian Heekin, "a minor league in the winter."

Shawnee To Highlight Play Premiere

Tribal dances by 30 members of the Shawnee nation will be a feature of ceremonies preceding the June 30 premiere of the outdoor historical drama, "Tecumseh!"

Arthur Rolette, member of the business committee and former tribal chairman of the Absentee Shawnees and Mrs. Rolette will accompany the Shawnees from Oklahoma to Chillicothe for the opening night.

Also invited to the premiere are members of the Remnant Shawnee band, with their tribal chairman and chiefs of the Bear and Deer clan from the area of the Tippecanoe battlefield.

Although singer Frankie Laine cannot be present due to an engagement in Atlanta, Ga., he has asked that his taped remarks be presented to the audience. Theme music for the drama was composed by the late Carl Fischer, who was Laine's accompanist.

Laine has given his permission for the Indian composer's score to be used in the drama.

The program, featuring the Indian dance, will begin at 8 p.m. Saturday. Curtain time for the performance is 8:45 p.m.

Senate Again Bids For War Fund End

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate appears headed toward giving President Nixon a choice between stopping the bombing and stopping federal paychecks.

Senate war critics Wednesday began immediate efforts to force the issue after Nixon's vetoed a bill that included a stop the bombing amendment. The House upheld the veto.

Sen. Thomas F. Eagleton, D-Mo., chief sponsor of the anti-bombing provision in the vetoed $3.4-billion supplementary money bill, immediately won its inclusion in a bill extending the federal debt ceiling, where its fate was uncertain.

The amendment also was included in a third bill, the continuing resolution to provide funding for federal agencies after Saturday night, when the current fiscal year ends. Congress has not approved regular appropriations for the fiscal year beginning July 1, and government agencies need the continuing resolution if they are to have funds to operate.

The appropriations bill probably will come before the Senate Appropriations Committee today, and seems certain to reach the President, with the anti-bombing amendment, before the week ends.

As passed by the House Tuesday, the amendment bars funds, both already provided and those appropriated by the resolution, to be used for any U.S. combat activities in or over Cambodia or Laos or off the shores of Cambodia or Laos.

Unlike the vetoed supplemental money measure, the debt ceiling bill and continuing resolution must become law by midnight Saturday for the government to continue to meet its financial obligations.

With a majority of the Senate clearly determined at this point to insist on a halt in bombing, the choice for Nixon could come down to a choice between the continued bombing of Cambodia or funds for federal operations, warned Eagleton and Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield.

"If the President doesn't want to stop the bombing and wants instead to stop the government from functioning, that is the President's responsibility," Mansfield shouted.

Burglars Hit Food Market; Purse Stolen

A burglary at a local food market and the theft of a purse are being investigated by city police.

A northside window was forced open to gain entry to Dailey's Market, 289 Nicholas Drive, sometime Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning. The intruders ransacked two desks and took $35.17 in change, a cash drawer, two cartons of cigarettes and two pairs of cotton gloves. Value of the missing items was set at $70.25.

Cheryle M. Peters, 705 E. Mound St., told police she had pulled her car into the alley next to Lindsey's Bake Shop, W. Main St., 4 p.m. Tuesday while she went into the bakery.

When she returned a few minutes later, her purse was missing from the front seat of the car. The purse contained a number of credit cards, identification papers and $4 in cash.

Deputy Shows Film

Bill Dountz, public relations officer for the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department, presented the film "Drugs and Driving" to the driver education class at Westfall High School, Tuesday morning.

Dountz also spoke to the Headstart class at the Jackson Township School on safety. The class viewed the Sheriff's Department new Cruiser Wagon.

Dollar Firm On Markets

LONDON (AP) — The dollar firmed in early trading on European money markets today, but dealers doubted the improvement would hold through the day.

The strength of the West German mark in relation to the dollar, meanwhile, was placing severe strain on the joint currency float which Common Market countries initiated last February.

The dollar opened virtually unchanged in Frankfurt at 2.5155 marks. It was half a centime higher in Paris at 4.20875 and over a centime up in Zurich at 3.0385. In London the pound sagged slightly to $2.5785.

Dealers have placed the blame for the dollar's weak position on American inflation, the Watergate scandal and U.S. trade problems.

As the dollar strengthened in Europe, the price of gold eased in bullion markets. It opened at $120.50 an ounce in London and $120.25 in Zurich. The price closed at $122.75 an ounce in both centers Wednesday.
